

THE FREDERICK DOUGLASS SOCIETY

Description:

The Frederick Douglass Society was created to cultivate the core strengths and talents present within youth who exhibit considerable potential for success.

The society is comprised of students ranging from the age of 8-18 who are selected based upon merit exemplified in academics, attitude and other achievements.

The ambassadors engage in a series of intentionally designed workshops and hands-on learning experiences that are built upon the attributes of Frederick Douglass to include self-awareness, leadership and oratory excellence, to name a few.

The Frederick Douglass Society is committed to awakening the potential within the leaders and activating them through increased opportunities of citizenship.
